[READING]

Q1. Read the seen passage and answer the following questions - [3 marks]

At the end of the day the Man called the Horse and the Dog and the Ox together, and said, "Three, O Three, I'm very sorry for you; but that Humph-thing in the Desert can't work, or he would have been here by now, so I am going to leave him alone, and you must work double-time to make up for it." That made the Three very angry, and they held a panchayat on the edge of the Desert; and the Camel came chewing cud and laughed at them. Then he said "Humph!" and went away again. Presently there came along the Djinn who was in charge of all deserts.

- Name the three animals who were fed up of camels.
- Who said them to work double-time?
- Use conjunction to join the sentences –

I am going to leave him alone. You all have to work double-time.
