

पुना International School

Shree Swaminarayan Gurukul, Zundal

WELCOME TO
PUNA INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL

GRAMMAR GEAR GRADE 7

2. NOUN FUNCTIONS

FUNCTIONS OF NOUN

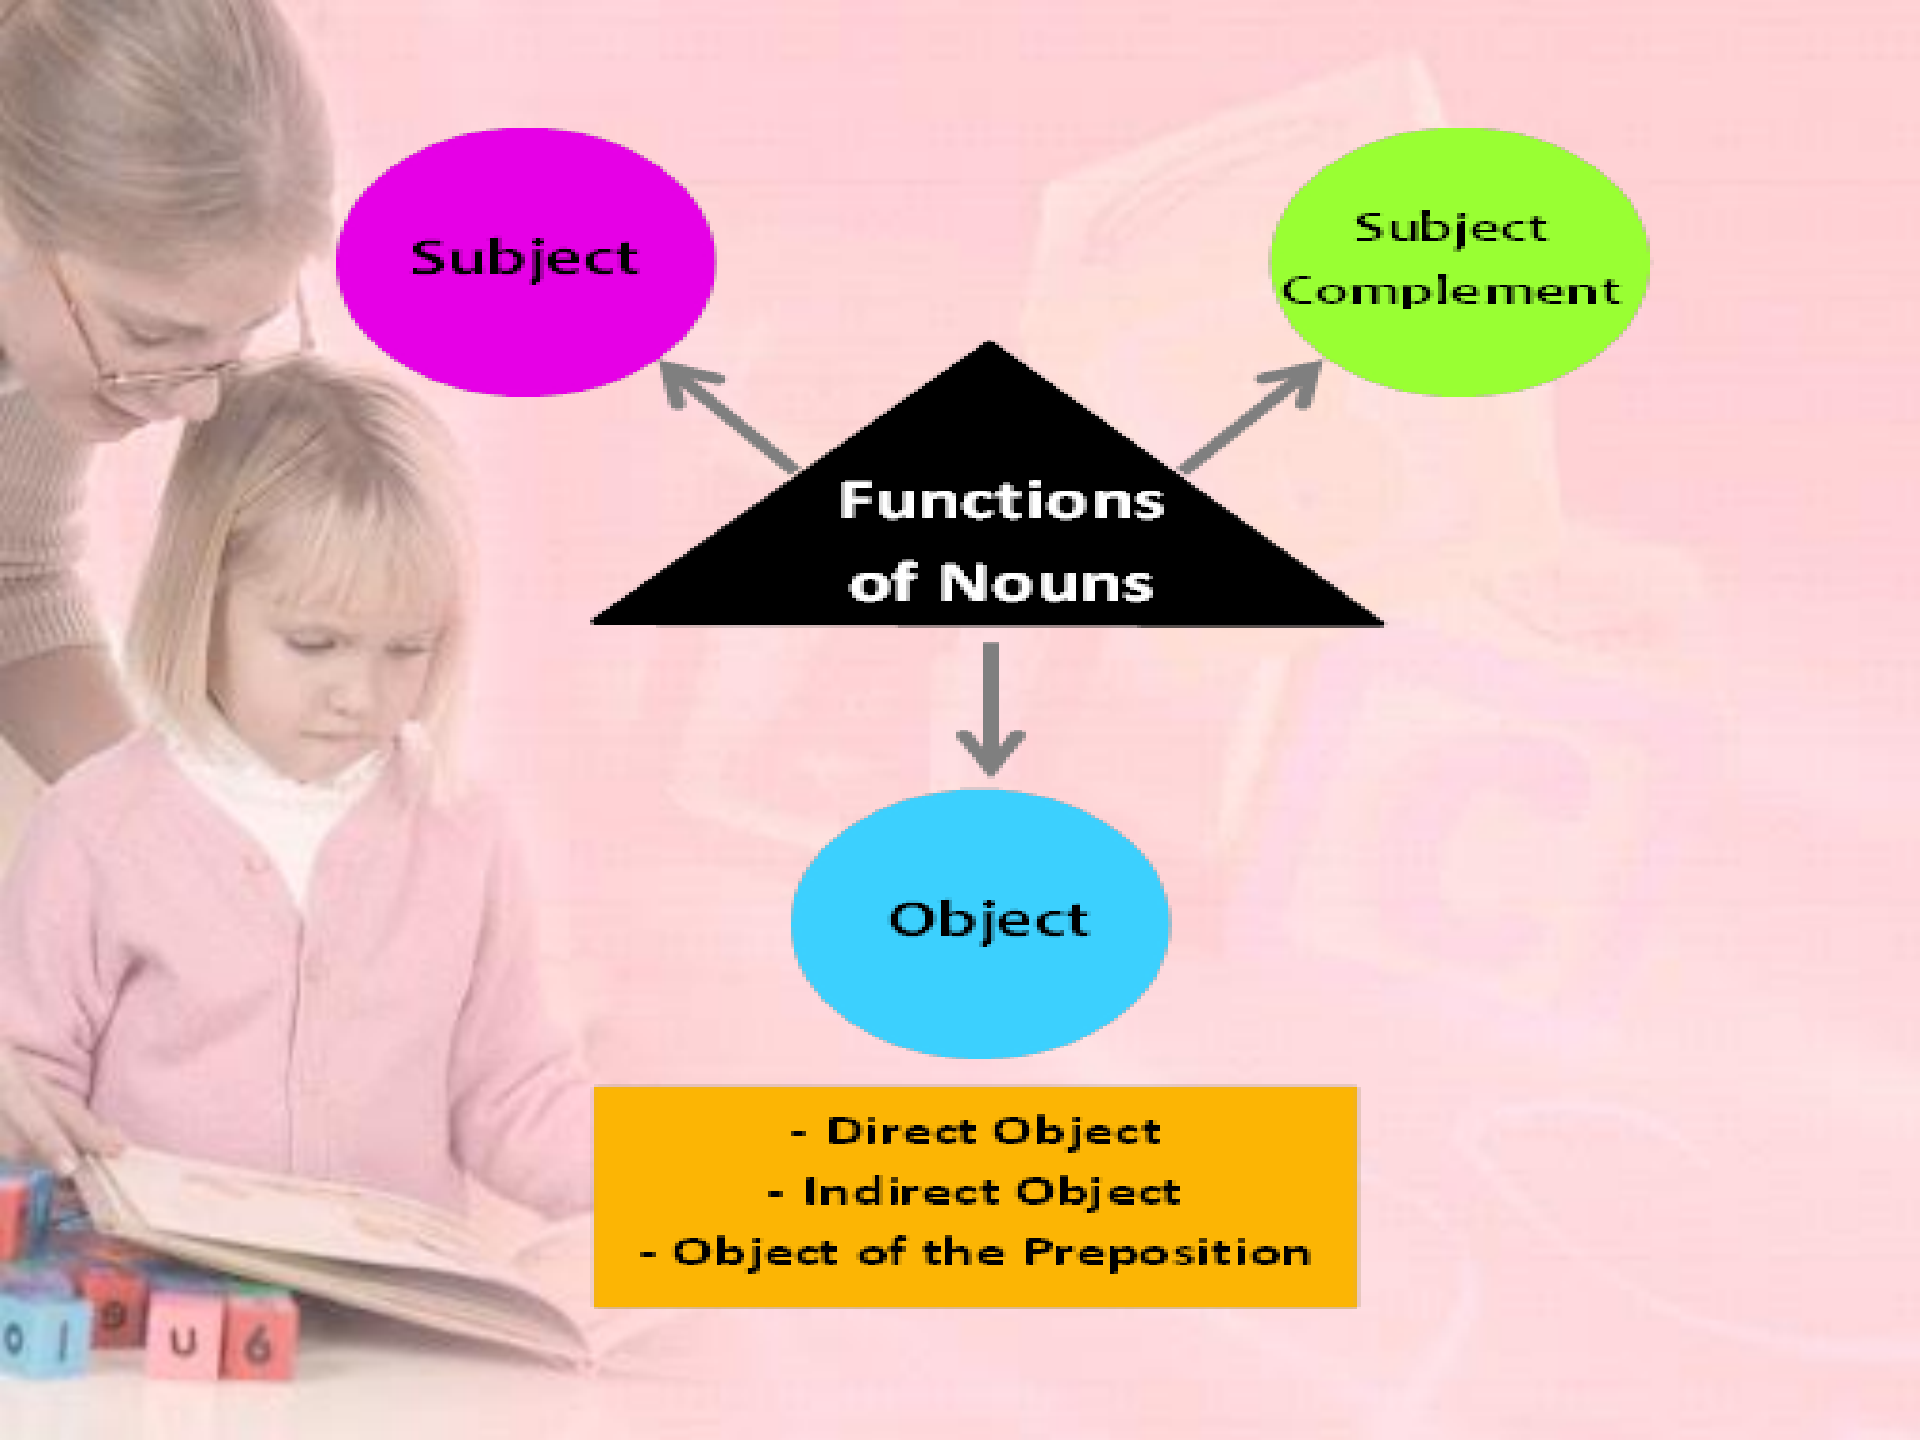

What is a Noun?

A noun is any word that names people, things, animals, places, events, or ideas.

It acts as the subject of a sentence that performs the action of the verb.

A noun also functions as a direct object of a verb, an indirect object of a verb.

A noun also functions as an object of preposition.

Subject

Subject Complement

Functions of Nouns

Object

- Direct Object
- Indirect Object
- Object of the Preposition

NOUN AS SUBJECT

Is the person or element that is performing the action.

Examples :

My aunt reads a novel.

I ate fried rice this morning.

Every morning my mother cooks rice.

NOUN AS DIRECT OBJECT

The element in the sentence that the subject is acting on is called the direct object.

The subject transfer the action of the verb to the direct object.

Examples :

She makes a sandwich .

I took the book .

The Government will take the decision .

NOUN AS INDIRECT OBJECT

The object being who receives the direct object is called indirect object.

Sentence with an indirect object usually contain a direct object as well.

Examples :

I give my brother some money.

My brother is asking me a question.

*underlined is indirect object

bolded is direct object

NOUN AS OBJECT OF PREPOSITION

Noun connected into a sentence with a preposition is called object of preposition.

Preposition words : about, by, behind, in front of, near, under.

Examples :

➤ I saw him in his office.

“Office” is the object of preposition ‘in’.

➤ The girl returns from school.

“School” is the object of preposition ‘from’.

Thank you

PRESENTED BY :

SHALINI HINGORANI